AUCTION SALE THIS DAY. A. C. McGillivray will sell at 11 o'clock, at the Courthouse, real estate and contents of a grocery store.

PLANTATION FOR SALE .- Mr. A. Stevens, well-known merchant of Augusta, Ga., offers for sale a fine plantation in Thomas County, Ga., known as the "Seward Home Place," having been formerly the property of the Hon. James L. Seward. Further particulars may be clare their willingness to introduce an ordi found in the advertisement.

THE NORTHERN STEAMERS AND FREIGHT. The steamship James Adger, Captain T. J. Lockwood, left this city on Saturday afternoon for New York with a very large freight and a flattering passenger list. The amount of vegetables on boar i was in great quantities, amounting to over four thousand packages. All our steamers for Northern ports are carrying off the products of our truck farms, and that form of freight is very heavy at present, forming in many cases the larger portion of the cargo.

SOUTHERN LANDS WANTED .- It will be seen by the advertisement printed elsewhere, that W. C. Alden & Co., of New York, have established a special department for the purchase and sale of Southern real estate. This branch of the business will be managed by Mr. J. M. Morgan, late of this city, who refers to Messrs. G. A. Trenholm & Son. There is a market in New York for our real estate, and sellers will do well to put themselves in communication with Mr. Morgan without delay.

BOW IN VANDERHORST-STREET. There were a thousand and one rumors affoat vesterday about a row that occurred in Vanderhorst street on the night previous, at twelve o'clock Our reporter put on his "seven league boots" and diligently traversed that section of the city, to ascertain the truth of the fray, and after hearing the testimony pro and con, found that the whole matter amounted to a promiscuous fight between some United States soldiers and colored men, of which a dusky wench was the moving cause. One of the boys in blue fired a pistol, which did no harm. The -colored policemen "bagged" one of the "sogers," who resisted like a Trojan, but was broed to succumb and be taken to quarters at the calaboose. The matter will be ventilated this morning.

MACON AND AUGUSTA RAILBOAD. -At a mee ing of the Board of Directors of this road, held in Augusta on Friday last, the report of Messrs. King, Magrath, Hazlehurst and Conley, the committee charged with devising plan to complete the road to Macon, was read. They say their investigation showed the pecuniary affairs of the company to be in a very discouraging condition. With a private stock list almost unreliable, they found a floating debt of $150,000, and the sec tion of road between Camak and Milledgeville was not paying expenses. They then mention their fruitless application for aid to the Georgis Legislature, and their subsequent arrangement by which help was procured from the Georgia Bailroad. This had enabled them to raise the means of at once putting the road under contract; but before doing so, they thought it best to report their action to the shall resign their seate, such resignation to shall resign their seate, such resignation to directors.
